A-DD/S&T noted that the Agency is actively engaged with State, JCS, and DIA on the verification problems related to the space treaty.

DDCI reported on yesterday's USIB meeting. He noted that GMAIC was charged with reporting back to USIB on an urgent basis on deficiencies in the intelligence on the Soviet ABM system and with making recommendations for remedial action. He will give the Director a draft letter to Secretary Vance asking for appropriate support for GMAIC's endeavor. The Director felt that the existing ambiguity on the inclusion of cost effectiveness in the proposed GMAIC report should be cleared up.

DDCI passed the Director a Wall Street Journal article on private foundations.

DDCI asked for the outstanding comments on the IG survey on collection requirements and said that he will be convening the Senior Executives Group with as the secretary to carry this matter forward.
